APICS Rochester Chapter

Professional Development Meeting
Thursday, March 10th, 2016

Professional Development Meeting:
Harness Your Raw Data for Enhanced Planning and Performance

Professor, speaker, author and consultant Jack Cook will be presenting for this joint PDM with ISM

About the Presenter

Event Information

Jack Cook – Assistant Professor at SUNY Brockport

Jack Cook is the Assistant Professor of Management Information Systems at the State University of New York at Brockport. Areas of expertise include Electronic Commerce, Information Systems and Production/Operations Management. He is also president of Certified Success, a firm that provides a vast array of management education, training, coaching and consulting designed to help tackle business challenges.

He has presented at the last four APICS International conferences, many academic conferences, four Top Management nights, and numerous professional development meetings.

Before joining SUNY Brockport, he was an Associate Professor at Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) for ten years, and the State University of New York at Geneseo for eight years. He was awarded the Jones School of Business Award for Creative and Innovative Teaching twice. Prior to SUNY-Geneseo, he attended Washington State University and was awarded the outstanding teaching award for the College of Business for two years in a row.

His professional certifications include:

Certified Fellow in Production and Inventory Management (CFPIM)
Certified Professional in Supply Management (CPSM)
Certified Software Quality Engineer (CSQE)
Certified Supply Chain Professional (CSCP)
Masters Certificate in Project Management

Date:	Thursday, March 10th, 2016
Time:	5:30 pm - Registration/Networking 6:00 pm - Dinner 6:30 pm - Program
Cost:	$20 flat fee for all attendees
•Location:	Holiday Inn Rochester 911 Brooks Avenue, Rochester NY14624
Register:	Online: www.apicsr.org or e-mail to programs@apicsr.org